Richmond Railroad Museum

The museum is the former Southern Railway Station, now owned and restored by the Old Dominion Chapter (ODC), Nat'l. Rwy. Historical Society. It is about 3/4 mile from Main Street Station, at the south end of the 14th St (Mayo) Bridge.

Traveling to the Meeting

The meeting is scheduled to permit travel by Amtrak trains 67 and 194 in the morning and trains 66 and 99 in the evening. Call 800-USA-RAIL for reservations or visit www.amtrak.com.

Someone from VARP/ODC will meet Amtrak passengers at Richmond's Main Street Station and return them there after the meeting.

From I-95 in all directions: Exit #73 for Maury Street. At the light bear right on Maury, go two blocks, turn left on 2nd St.
Proceed three blocks to Hull Street.
Turn right. Museum is on the right.
Parking within fence on north side of the building.
